

The Intersection of LGBT and Christian Cultures

Monday, April 25
12:00 p.m.
Alfond 106
Biddeford Campus

As part of UNE's Gaypril events, Joel Wentz, Area Coordinator in the UNE Department of Residential Education and Housing, will discuss his graduate research study on how gay and lesbian college students establish their identities while enrolled in private, Christian universities. This research has been presented at multiple conferences and presents a really informative picture of LGBT college students establishing identities.

Sponsored by Multicultural Affairs & Diversity Programs, Q-Med: UNECOM's Queer-Straight Alliance & the Christian Medical and Dental Association
